This week at school...

This week at school children have been planting sunflower seeds in our wellbeing garden and discussing how we can care for plants to help them grow.

Don't forget to follow our school on twitter to see all the fabulous learning that is taking place.

Breakfast Club

Breakfast Club will be starting on Monday 26th April. The cost of this is as follows:

£3 7:45am—8:45am

£1.50 8:15am—8:45am

Please contact Miss Scaife at the school office if you wish for your child to have a place.

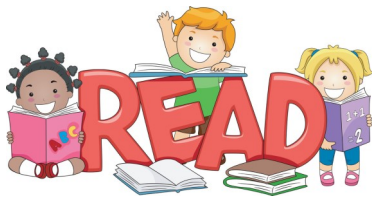

Water Bottles

This is a polite reminder to please ensure that your child's water bottle contains water only.

Any other drinks are not allowed.

Home Reading and Seesaw

Reading is at the heart of everything we do at Girnhill Infant School. Please make sure that you are acknowledging your child's home reading on Seesaw. Teachers will not be able to change your child's book bag book until reading has been acknowledged. This could be through a photograph, video or a note. Books will be changed on a Friday each week.

Bank Holiday and Polling Day

School will be closed on Monday 3rd May for the Bank Holiday. School will be open as normal on 4th & 5th May.

School will also be closed for an INSET on Thursday 6th May for Polling Day. School will be open as normal Friday 7th May.
